

George Arabian Awarded YPC's ASPIRE Award

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: APR 14, 2014

George Arabian, CEO of nvision, honored by the Markham Board of Trade's Young Professionals Committee (YPC) as one of the top three outstanding business leaders under 40

Toronto, CAN — On April 14, 2014, the Markham Board of Trade's Young Professionals Committee (YPC) presented George Arabian, CEO of nvision, with the 2014 ASPIRE award at 2nd Annual ASPIRE Awards at the Flato Markham Theatre. The Young Professionals Committee of the Markham Board of Trade, aims to bring together aspiring young professionals, entrepreneurs and thought-leaders under 40 from all corners to grow their network, build connections, and learn from each other through unique social events and opportunities.

YPC introduced the ASPIRE Awards last year to celebrate and recognize outstanding young entrepreneurs and business leaders. Eligibility for the ASPIRE (Achieving Social and Professional Ideals, Reaching Excellence) Awards includes demonstrating business success, community involvement as well as being a role model and inspiration to others. Three ASPIRE Awards are given each year.

ABOUT NVISION

Being in the industry for over 15 years, nvision brings a wealth of practical experience, with hundreds of websites launched, hundreds of digital campaigns executed, and countless happy clients. Part of their secret sauce is that they're award-winning creative designers, developers and search marketing wizards with an uncanny passion for digital marketing excellence.

For more information, visit nvision.co

ABOUT YOUNG PROFESSIONALS COMMITTEE

Engaging young leaders in the Markham business community is the goal of the Young Professionals Committee (YPC) – a group within the Markham Board of Trade that spearheads the ASPIRE Awards. Through networking events and social outings, the YPC tries to cater to the unique needs of its young members.

ABOUT MARKHAM BOARD OF TRADE

The Markham Board of Trade (MBT) is the premier business association serving the Markham's local business community for over 38 years. MBT enhances the success of its members by offering exclusive programs and services to assist them in growing their networks and their businesses while saving them money with our numerous programs and relationships with suppliers.

For more information, visit markhamboard.com.